Aspen Santa Fe Ballet's 2017-18 winter season is one for the dance enthusiast and novice alike with performances spanning the holiday tradition of ASFB's The Nutcracker, to the world premiere of a brand new collaboration between noted choreographer Jorma Elo and superstar pianist Joyce Yang.

ASFB's The Nutcracker is a staple of the holiday season in Aspen. Featuring hundreds of young dancers from The School of Aspen Santa Fe Ballet's four Roaring Fork valley locations alongside professional dancers, this winter classic creates lifelong memories for ballet students and audiences alike. Aspen Santa Fe Ballet will perform a night of audience favorites (Jan. 20) to light up the heart of the ski season. After touring these works to enthusiastic crowds, ASFB brings back such popular ballets as Alejandro Cerrudo's Silent Ghost, Cayetano Soto's Huma Rojo, and Fernando Melo's Dream Play for one thrilling evening.

Under the leadership of Artistic Director Troy Powell, Ailey II's repertory spans classics by company namesake Alvin Ailey, to rising choreographers such as Kyle Abraham.

Finally, in collaboration with the Aspen Music Festival & School, this winter Aspen Santa Fe Ballet will unveil the premiere of a new ballet by Boston Ballet's resident choreographer, Jorma Elo, performed to live accompaniment by renowned pianist Joyce Yang (March 24). ## Aspen Santa Fe Ballet

Aspen Santa Fe Ballet's bold vision – top global choreographers, distinctive groundbreaking works, and virtuoso dancers – has fostered a jewel of a dance company in the American West and beyond. ASFB's unique pioneering spirit arises from a paired set of home cities: Aspen, nestled high in the Rocky Mountains, and Santa Fe, gracing the majestic Southwestern plateau.

Since its founding in 1996 by Bebe Schweppe, the company has served as a prestigious incubator and a showcase for choreographic invention to popular and critical acclaim. The performing troupe forms the core of a multifaceted arts organization with activities in both Aspen and Santa Fe. Repeat engagements at the Joyce Theater, Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival, Kennedy Center, Wolf Trap Center for the Performing Arts, the American Dance Festival and the Harris Theater for Music and Dance have built a national reputation. The company has also toured internationally to Brazil, Canada, France, Greece, Guatemala, Israel and Italy.

A respected arts presenter, ASFB curates high-quality dance programming for home audiences. Dance education is a priority, with well-established ballet schools training children and adults in both markets. An outreach program steeped in Mexico's rich folkloric culture fortifies community connections. Premier funders such as the National Endowment of the Arts, the Joyce Foundation, the Wolf Trap Foundation, Dance St. Louis and The Princess Grace Foundation have supported ASFB's growth. In 2010 the Joyce Theater Foundation conferred upon Artistic Director Tom Mossbrucker and Executive Director Jean-Philippe Malaty the Joyce Theater Award in honor of their pioneering and innovative model for American dance.
