ASPEN SANTA FE BALLET ANNOUNCES ITS 2015-16 WINTER PERFORMANCE SERIES IN ASPEN, CO

Celebrating 20 Years of Aspen Santa Fe Ballet in 2016

Starting in January 2016, Aspen Santa Fe Ballet will celebrate its 20th anniversary with a season packed with world premieres and prestigious engagements around the country. To kick things off, the company will officially open its milestone season with two performances at home in Aspen (February 13 & March 26). The program for these performances will feature the premieres of two newly commissioned works by the Spanish choreographer Cayetano Soto and Fernando Melo of Brazil. Soto returns to ASFB to create his third work for the company, this one commissioned specifically for the anniversary celebration. Melo, an ASFB newcomer, brings a unique approach to the creative process, resulting in a piece that will bring a new aesthetic to ASFB's repertoire. Also on the program is Alejandro Cerrudo's Silent Ghost, first performed in Aspen during the summer 2015 season.

But before the anniversary celebrations get fully underway, it wouldn't be a winter season without the holiday classic, The Nutcracker. Featuring hundreds of young dancers from The School of Aspen Santa Fe Ballet locations throughout the Roaring Fork Valley, ASFB's take on this holiday classic creates lifelong memories for ballet students and audiences alike. With four performances over the weekend of December 12-13, there are multiple opportunities to enjoy a holiday favorite.

Tickets for all winter series performances go on sale to the public on Thursday, October 22, 2015. Tickets will be available online at www.aspensantafeballet.com; by phone through Aspen ShowTix at 970-920-5770; or in person at the Wheeler Opera House box office (320 E. Hyman Ave.). Ticket prices range from $25-$74.

All performances take place at the Aspen District Theater (335 High School Road).

Ticket prices and programs subject to change.

Aspen Santa Fe Ballet

Aspen Santa Fe Ballet's bold vision – top global choreographers, distinctive groundbreaking works, and virtuoso dancers – has fostered a jewel of a dance company in the American West and beyond. ASFB's unique pioneering spirit arises from a paired set of home cities: Aspen, nestled high in the Rocky Mountains, and Santa Fe, gracing the majestic Southwestern plateau.

Since its founding in 1996 by Bebe Schweppe, the company has served as a prestigious incubator and a showcase for choreographic invention to popular and critical acclaim. The performing troupe forms the core of a multifaceted arts organization with activities in both Aspen and Santa Fe. Repeat engagements at the Joyce Theater, Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival, Kennedy Center, Wolf Trap Center for the Performing Arts, the American Dance Festival and the Harris Theater for Music and Dance have built a national reputation. The company has also toured internationally to Brazil, Canada, France, Greece, Guatemala, Israel and Italy.

A respected arts presenter, ASFB curates high-quality dance programming for home audiences. Dance education is a priority, with well-established ballet schools training children and adults in both markets. An outreach program steeped in Mexico's rich folkloric culture fortifies community connections. Premier funders such as the National Endowment of the Arts, the Joyce Foundation, the Wolf Trap Foundation, Dance St. Louis and The Princess Grace Foundation have supported ASFB's growth. In 2010 the Joyce Theater Foundation conferred upon Artistic Director Tom Mossbrucker and Executive Director Jean-Philippe Malaty the Joyce Theater Award in honor of their pioneering and innovative model for American dance.
